A person is seen from behind, paddling a kayak on a calm lake. The water reflects the surrounding landscape, which includes a dense forest of evergreen trees on the left and snow-capped mountains in the distance under a clear blue sky. The scene is peaceful and scenic. On the right side of the image, there are several overlapping colored squares: a light blue square at the top, a dark blue square below it, a yellow square below that, a red square below that, and a teal square at the bottom right.
